- 1) Ample opportunity to connect with an impressive, diverse, and just plain cool group of women. You will build real relationships with people that you can actually feel comfortable picking up the phone and calling (or emailing) after you leave.
- 2) Interactive workshops that will spark your imagination, clarify your goals, and arm you to take action long after you return home.
- 3) The full The Soul of Success Retreat workbook, a rich compendium of exercises, worksheets and templates from the workshops, so you can continue to grow from this experience.
- 4) Plenty of personal attention, guidance and support from leader and coach, Terra Winston.
- 5) Time to yourself and time to reflect. We've all been to conferences that cram full every moment of your day, so you're exhausted by the time you go home. We hate that too! So we've built in time for you to reflect, relax, visit the Spa or even take a nap.
- 6) Ongoing support to keep the momentum going with special resources for retreat alumni and a year's worth of The Soul of Success Group Coaching Calls.
